

CALIFORNIA STATE DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE

Biography

Tom Dyer

Tom Dyer is the Director of Legislation for the California Department of Finance where he advises the Director and the Governor's Office in the planning, implementation, administration and evaluation of fiscal and legislative issues affecting the budgetary process and the state's fiscal condition.

After two years as a criminal prosecutor with Sutter County, Tom started his service with the State of California in 2006 as an Enforcement Counsel with the Fair Political Practices Commission. From there, Tom worked in the public sector labor/employment arena as an attorney with the Department of Personnel Administration (DPA) and the Department of Social Services. From 2010 to 2012, he returned to DPA as its Legislative Director and served as DPA's liaison with the Legislature on labor contracts and other public employee compensation issues.

Tom received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Philosophy and Juris Doctorate degree from the University of California, Davis.